Founded in 1973, Repcor began as a manufacturer's representative agency serving the Hawaiian Islands, built on a foundation of integrity, accountability, and exceptional service. Since officially becoming Repcor in 1994, the company has grown into a leading agency across the Western United States, representing top brands in plumbing, HVAC, waterworks, fire protection, and irrigation.

In 2026, Repcor expanded further through merging with Gentile & Associates, enhancing our irrigation expertise and broadening its reach across California, Hawaii, Nevada and Arizona—continuing its commitment to delivering growth, innovation, and unmatched service.
